

"Tried Others—Back to Tuxedo!"

Say Dixie Railroad Firemen

Keeping the steam up in a fast locomotive is a man's job—and that's why the brawny railroad firemen of the South must have a man's tobacco to keep their own steam up.

They smoke Tuxedo because it's the only tobacco that thoroughly satisfies and refreshes them—and they can smoke it all day and enjoy it every minute.

Note how enthusiastic these men are about Tuxedo—especially those who have tried other brands. They always come back to Tuxedo.

Small wonder! For there's no other tobacco like it.

Tuxedo is made of the mild, sweet top and center leaves of the Burley tobacco plant—no strong, oily bottom leaves such as are used in most pipe tobaccos.

And the great original "Tuxedo Process," which absolutely removes all the bite, makes Tuxedo the mildest, most enjoyable of smokes.

That "Tuxedo Process" has 'em all guessing. No other tobacco can use it—but plenty try to imitate it.

And as a lot of these railroad firemen have discovered for themselves, not one of the imitations begins to equal the original.

G. G. WILSON
Fireman on the Southern R. R., Knoxville, Tenn.
"All kinds of weather look alike to me, when TUXEDO goes along with me. It's the one best tobacco for a man with real work to do. TUXEDO for mine always." G. G. WILSON.

R. E. CARLETON
Fireman on the Norfolk & Western Ry., Radford Div.
"I have been firing an engine for a year on the Norfolk and Western Ry. TUXEDO is my favorite smoke; I have tried the others, but none of them compare even favorably with TUXEDO. I cheerfully recommend this brand to all of my friends and acquaintances." R. E. CARLETON.

A. L. WELZ
Fireman on the L. & N. R. R., Lexington, Ky.
"The fire that a fireman enjoys is the TUXEDO fire. It is the only tobacco I have ever tried that does not hurt me. I can smoke TUX all day and feel fine." A. L. WELZ.

E. M. JONES
Fireman on the L. & N. R. R., Lexington, Ky.
"When I near my run I hear the gita begin to puff and blow TUX-DO, TUX-DO, TUX-DO. It makes me think of happy times for my pipe puffs the same. I have been a constant user of TUXEDO for the past three years and nothing can take its place." E. M. JONES.

M. B. SMITH
Pres. and Sec'y B. L. F. & E. No. 675, Huntington, W. Va.
"There are many so-called smoking tobaccos to be found on the market and I have tried them all, but to me there is only one tobacco and that one is TUXEDO, no others can hold a candle to it. Every time I can say a good word for TUXEDO you can bank on me being an earnest booster." M. B. SMITH.

S. S. SHAWL
Fireman on N. C. & St. L. R. R., Nashville, Tenn.
"Maybe I could fire my engine just as well on some other tobacco besides TUXEDO, but I don't believe it. TUXEDO for mine every time." S. S. SHAWL.

JOHN STERCHI
Fireman on the Southern Ry., Chattanooga, Tenn.
"It seems to help me hustle to have a pipe between my teeth, and TUXEDO is the only tobacco I can smoke all the time and not bite my tongue or make my throat dry." JOHN STERCHI.

JOHN GABLE
Fireman on the L. C. & L. DIVISION, Louisville, Ky.
"For real enjoyment, give me my pipe and a can of TUXEDO. It is the only tobacco that fills the bill and does not bite my tongue." JOHN GABLE.

JOHN MURPHY
Fireman on the L. & N. R. R., Lexington, Ky.
"TUXEDO is better than any other tobacco I have ever tried. I use it all the time and it does not bite my tongue. TUXEDO is the only tobacco, I say!" JOHN MURPHY.

E. J. MITCHELL
Fireman on the L. & N. R. R., Nashville, Tenn.
"I make my living firing on engine and get my chief pleasure firing my pipe with TUXEDO. My job comes first, but 'TUX' is a mighty close second." E. J. MITCHELL.

J. D. PACK
Fireman on N. C. & St. L. R. R., Nashville, Tenn.
"Nothing suits my taste like TUXEDO. I notice a lot of railroad men who used to smoke it are going back to it again. They can't find anything as good as 'Tux.'" J. D. PACK.

JNO. T. BABB
Fireman on N. C. & St. L. R. R., Nashville, Tenn.
"For the past few years I've been smoking a number of kinds of tobacco, but can't find anything I can get as much good out of as TUXEDO. So I'm smoking it again and I'm going to stick to it." Jno. T. BABB.

W. J. HUTTON
Fireman on the N. C. & St. L. R. R., Nashville, Tenn.
"I've tried a dozen kinds of tobacco but nothing tastes so good or braces me up after a long run like a pipe of TUXEDO." W. J. HUTTON.

L. A. HARRIS
Fireman on N. C. & St. L. R. R., Nashville, Tenn.
"A fireman's job is no joke; he needs a tobacco that's got some hustle in it. I've tried 'em all and come back to my first love—TUXEDO. There's nothing like it." L. A. HARRIS.

L. F. SMITH
Fireman on N. C. & St. L. R. R., Nashville, Tenn.
"TUXEDO is as wholesome as it is delightful. There's rest and relaxation in every pipeful." L. F. SMITH.

J. D. FULLER
Fireman on the N. C. & St. L. R. R., Chattanooga, Tenn.
"I know four or five firemen who, like myself, are smoking TUXEDO again after trying other tobaccos. It's the sweetest and cheapest smoke money can buy." J. D. FULLER.

W. G. MARTIN
Fireman on the Chattanooga Belt, Chattanooga, Tenn.
"I can't pay attention to my engine and bother with lighting a pipe every few minutes. TUXEDO burns sure and steady and gives me just the tasty, refreshing smoke I'm looking for." W. G. MARTIN.

H. G. KITCHENS
Fireman on the W. & A. R. R., Chattanooga, Tenn.
"My job is about the thirstiest kind of work a man can do and a tobacco that dries and parches the throat is something fierce. TUXEDO doesn't—and that's why I smoke it." H. G. KITCHENS.

M. L. STANSBERRY
Fireman on the Southern R. R., Knoxville, Tenn.
"A man with a job as hard as a fireman's can't get any comfort out of a tobacco he's afraid to smoke all the time. I smoke TUXEDO from morning till night and it never bites my tongue or hurts me in any way. The more I smoke the more I enjoy it." M. L. STANSBERRY.

J. C. DILLINGHAM
Fireman on the L. & N. R. R., Nashville, Tenn.
"I got the idea that TUXEDO was a kind of a highbrow tobacco and I thought I could find something better for a hard worker like me. I was mistaken—nothing but TUXEDO for me now." J. C. DILLINGHAM.

DREW MORRIS, JR.
Fireman on the Southern Ry., Knoxville, Tenn.
"You certainly have attained the highest degree of perfection in the manufacture of TUXEDO. I have smoked practically all of the so-called 'just as good' brands, but I invariably go back to my pet brand, that is packed in the Green tins, that is the most satisfying smoke that I have ever found." DREW MORRIS, JR.

GEO. J. SCHRECK
Fireman on the L. & N. R. R., Louisville, Ky.
"I smoke TUXEDO all the time and find it more satisfactory than any brand of tobacco that I can find." GEO. J. SCHRECK.

D. R. BRAMEL
Fireman on the L. & N. R. R., Paris, Ky.
"You would not ask me about TUXEDO if you could see me go after it after firing a trip on the 1.14 for Rice." D. R. BRAMEL.
